

ULTRA-FLO PRESSURE/VACUUM RELIEF VALVE – 7000 SERIES

The Ultra-Flo Pressure/Vacuum Relief Valve is designed to operate after flushing and cleaning with liquids or steam. This unique design allows for complete flush out, with manual override available for both pressure and vacuum relief valves. Designed so valve can be automated for remote control. The Ultra-Flo can be used on air, gas or liquid service and is designed to be used in the Brewery, Food Processing, Pharmaceutical, and Cosmetic industries.

Features:

- High capacity
- Soft seat design
- Low profile design
- Remote relief sensor available
- Manual override
- Set pressures range from 5 PSIG to 25 PSIG
- Pressure relief or vacuum relief only
- Combination pressure/vacuum relief
- Standard material construction available in stainless steel or bronze. Other materials available upon request

